RESEARCH WORK/CLASSES PLAN

General Principles:

Applicable Regulation

The European Doctorate Title, approved by the Confederation of the Councils of European Rectors, is a title associated with the Doctoral Degree awarded by European Universities and cannot be considered as an additional Doctoral Degree or a joint Doctoral Degree by one or more Universities. This title will be awarded exclusively by the University of Évora upon completion of the Doctoral Degree.

At University of Évora the award of such title follows the regulation approved by Rector of the University of Évora which establishes its specific conditions.

Intellectual Property Rights

Regardless of the work developed by the doctoral student, the University of Évora remains holder of all previous Intellectual Property Rights.

Certificate

Upon the completion of the research work/classes, the host University will issue a document certifying the work developed/attended classes and the exact period of mobility.

Registration Fees

During the stay at the host University the doctoral candidate will continue to pay the registration fees at University of Évora.

Health Insurance

The doctoral candidate will provide a health and a civil liability insurance policy during the stay at the host University, according to the institutions internal rules.

Financial Support

The doctoral candidate will not benefit, by signing the present Research Work/Classes Plan, from any financial support to undertake the research activities at the host University.
