Frequently Asked Questions

General Information

- Can you send me more information about this program?

In the web site www.oferta.uevora.pt we provide all the information about the study programs offered by the University of Évora, namely, program duration, vacancies, study plan, access conditions, tuition fees, and so on.

Program Dates

- What is the application deadline for this program?

There are two phases for applications:

1. First phase: from January 28 to March 28, 2019.
2. Second phase: from April 2 to July 5, 2019.

We advise you to apply in the first phase, as you will have more time to get your visa and prepare your trip, in case you are admitted. Moreover, the second phase may not open if vacancies are filled in the first phase.

The application is made on-line, at <https://siiue.uevora.pt> . There are two support guides to facilitate the entire application process: Candidate Registration Guide (registration to obtain a password that gives you access to the platform for submission of the application) and the Online Application Guide for International Student.

Fees & Prices

- How much does this program cost?

The University of Évora has an annual tuition fee of 2,500 euros for international students. However, the University of Évora offers Scholarships for International Students that aim to facilitate the access of international students to the study programs offered by the University. These scholarships translate into a reduction of the tuition fee paid by the students. There are two types of scholarships:

1. Merit Scholarships - all international students receive the merit scholarship in the first year if:
 - a. In 1st cycle (undergraduate) programs, if they have an access average grade of 14 or higher;
 - b. In 2nd cycle (master) program, if they have an undergraduate average grade of 15 or higher;
 - c. In the 3rd cycle (PhD programs), if they have a weighted average of the undergraduate degree grade (75%) and a master's degree grade (25%) higher or equal to 16.

In the following years, students have to continue to show a meritorious performance to continue to benefit from the scholarship.

2. Cooperation and Development Scholarship- in the first year all international students who are nationals of African Countries with a Portuguese as the official language or who benefit from the Refugee or Stateless Statute receive a scholarship. In the following years, the students must have a minimum approval rate to continue receiving the scholarship.

- Can I pay for this program in installments?

Yes, the tuition fee can be paid in full at the time of enrollment or in 8 equal amount monthly installments.

How to Apply?

For undergraduate course the application process depends on whether you are European or non-European and whether you are living in Portugal for more than 2 years. If you are an European citizen or a resident in Portugal, you have to apply to Concurso Nacional de Acesso (National Access Application) or to the Special National Applications (M23, Holders of an undergraduate degree, and so on) – more information in: DGES. If you are a non-European Student, you have to apply to the International Students Application.

- What documents are required to apply to this program?

Applications to Undergraduate programs through the International Students Application

- qualification that gives access to higher education in the country of origin (diploma or certificate of completion of secondary education or legal equivalent) and approval in national exams for access to higher education if required in the country of origin (e.g. ENEM in the case of Brazil), or
- Portuguese secondary education diploma or legally equivalent qualification awarded by a secondary school or by the competent services of the Ministry of Education;

Note that if you are attending an undergraduate degree at a foreign higher education institution and wish to attend, only for a semester or one year, at the University of Évora, you must apply for mobility.
