Aviso nº 7773/2019 (2ª série), de 6 de maio

1- By order dated April 10th 2019 of the Rector of the University of Évora, it was deliberated to open an international selection contest for the position of doctor for the exercise of scientific research activities in the scientific area of History under a fixed term public service work contract regime with the duration of three years, automatically renewable for one-year periods up to a maximum of six years , in order to carry out the functions of researcher in the area of Agricultural and Environmental History. In the scopus of CIDEHUS reference UID/HIS/00057/2019. The selected candidate may have to ensure 4 hours of weekly classes in curricular units that may be distributed to them.

Interested parties are informed that the present proceeding is covered by the provisions of Decree-Law no. 57/2016, of August 29, in the wording given by Law No. 57/2017 of July 19, inserted in the Program for Stimulating Scientific Employment financed by FCT, after approval in the Contest Stimulus to Scientific - Institutional Employment.

2- Applicable legislation: Decree-Law no. 57/2016 of 29th August, which approves the doctor hiring regime destined to stimulate scientific and technological employment in all areas of knowledge (RJEC), with the modifications introduced by the Law nº 57/207 approved in 19th July. General Public Service Labour Law (LTFP), approved in annex to Law no. 35/2014 of 20 June, under its current wording.

3- Pursuant to article 16 of Decree-Law no. 57/2016 of 29th August, this contest procedure shall be exempt from authorization by the Government members in charge of the areas of Finances and Public Administration, namely that mentioned in nº 3 of article 7 of the LTFP; from obtaining a prior favourable opinion from the Government members in charge of the areas of Finances and Public Administration, mentioned in nº 5 of article 30 of the LTFP, and the recruitment process for workers in a requalification position, mentioned in article 265 of the LTFP.

4- Pursuant to article 13 of the RJEC, the contest selection panel has the following composition:
President: Ana Cardoso de Matos, Associated Professor with aggregation, University of Évora.

Members:

Rui Santos, Associated Professor with aggregation of the Faculty of the Faculty of Social and Human Sciences -FCSH, of the New University of Lisbon;

Dulce Freire, Researcher of the Institute of Social Sciences-ICS, University of Lisbon;

Paulo Eduardo Guimarães, Assistant Professor with aggregation of the University of Évora.

5- The place of work is situated in the Évora - Interdisciplinary Centre for History, Culture and Society –CIDEHUS of the University of Évora.

6- The monthly remuneration to be paid is 2128,34 € corresponding to level 33 of the U Salary Table, approved by Order no. 1553-C/2008 of 31st December.

7- Any national, foreign and stateless candidates who hold a doctorate degree in History or a doctorate degree with a dissertation on History (dominantly) and a scientific and professional curriculum whose profile is suited for the activity to be performed can submit their applications, especially if the person have:

- Minimum of 3 years of experience of researcher;
- Relevant CV in the field of Agricultural and Environmental History;
- High capacity of communication and writing in Portuguese and in English.

If the PhD has been awarded by a foreign higher education institution, the candidates are admitted to the procedure, according to paragraph e) of paragraph 2 of article 4 of Decree-Law nº 60/2018, of 3 th August. The registration/recognition of the degree in Portugal is effected after the end of the tender, under the terms defined in Decree-Law nº 66/2018, of 16th August; that registration/recognition is a necessary step for contracting.

8- General contest admission requirements are those specified in article 17 of the LTFP and special requirements are those specified in the previous section.

9- Pursuant to article 5 of the RJEC, selection is to be made based on the evaluation of the scientific and curricular career of the candidates.

10- The evaluation of the scientific and curricular career focuses on relevance, quality and up-to-dateness:

- a) Of the scientific, technological and cultural production;
- b) Of research activities, applied or based on practical work, developed in the last five years, and considered of greatest impact by the candidate;
- c) Of outreach activities and dissemination activities developed in the last five years, namely in the context of the promotion of agrarian and environmental history;
- d) Of coordination or participation in research projects financed by FCT or by others institutions.

11- The five-year period mentioned above can be extended by the panel, if requested by the candidate, whenever the suspension of scientific activities is founded on socially protected grounds such as paternity leave, long-term serious illness, and other legal situations of unavailability to work.

12- Preference is given to candidates who have high skills in the area of agrarian and environmental history and capacities to deal with the heritage legacy associated with these area of knowledge.

13- If the jury considers that the elements of the scientific and curricular path are insufficient for an adequate decision, the evaluation process may include an interview, which will be evaluated qualitatively. For the interview will be called the ones with the highest score up to 7 candidates

14- The system of final classification is expressed on a scale of 0 to 100. In the application of the criteria referred to in point 10, the following parameters and weight factors are evaluated, bearing in mind that it is intended to select a researcher in the area of Agrarian and Environmental History with the capacity to teach up to 4 hours per week.

- a) Scientific, cultural or technological outputs - 50%;
- b) Research activities, applied or based on practical work - 35%
- c) Outreach activities and dissemination activities developed - 15%.

Depending on the nature of the candidate's research project on agrarian and environmental history, requested below, it will be classified in the most appropriate paragraph (s) of the above mentioned.

15- The final classification system of the candidates is expressed on a scale of 0 to 100. The interview will also be classified as 0-100 and average with the result of the information in point 14. In the event of an interview, the non-appearance will dictate the exclusion of the competition. The interview can be done by videoconference or equivalent system.

16- After completing the application of the selection criteria, the jury prepares the ordered list of successful candidates with their classification.

17- The panel shall deliberate by means of roll call vote justified under the adopted and disclosed selection criteria, with no abstentions allowed.

18- Minutes of panel meetings shall be elaborated and will include a summary of all occurrences.

19- The panel's final decision will be validated by the head of the institution, who is also in charge of deciding about the contracting.

20- Formalization of candidatures – documentation required:

20.1 Candidatures are formalized by way of an official request form (Requerimento), available at the e-mail address of the Administrative Services of the University of Évora, <http://www.sadm.uevora.pt> sent to the President of the Jury, which includes the identification of this announcement (Ref. CIDEHUS-05), full name, parents' names, ID card or Citizen Card number and date or civil identification number, taxpayer ID number, date and place of birth, marital status, occupation, residence and contact address, including email address and telephone.

- g) A high quality research project with the maximum of 2,000 words on Agricultural and Environmental History and in harmony with the strategic project of CIDEHUS.UÉ on societal changes in the South.
- h) Motivation letter.

In the application context, the documents referred to in items b) to d) can be replaced by a statement made in the Requerimento by the candidate, on his/her honour, reporting, for each one, his/her precise situation with respect to such items.

20.3 Candidates should submit their application request and supporting documentation, preferably in digital form, in PDF format, to the email drhsc@uevora.pt, in person at the Universidade de Évora – Divisão de Recursos Humanos (DRH), Serviços Administrativos, Largo da Sr.ª da Natividade, Apartado 94, 7002-554 Évora, Portugal, during working hours, or by mail to the same address. When submitted by mail, applications must be sent by registered mail with acknowledgement of receipt sent until the last day of application deadline, which is hereby set as 30 working days after the publication of this Announcement.

21- All candidates who formalize their applications in an improper way or fail to prove the requirements imposed by this contest are excluded from admission. In case of doubt, the panel is entitled to request any candidate to present further documentation supporting their statements.

22- False statements provided by the candidates will be punished by law.

23- A list of the candidates admitted and excluded as well as the final classification list is publicized on the webpage <http://www.sadm.uevora.pt>, and the candidates are notified by email with receipt of delivery.

24- Preliminary Hearing and Final Decision Deadline: Pursuant to article 121 of the Administrative Procedure Code, after notification, all candidates have 10 working days to respond. The panel's final decisions are pronounced within a period of 90 days, counted from the deadline for presentation of applications.

25- This contest is exclusively destined to fill this specific vacancy and can be terminated at any time until approval of the final candidate list, expiring with the respective occupation of the vacancy.

26- Non-discrimination and equal access policy: The University of Évora actively promotes a non-discrimination and equal access policy, wherefore no candidate can be privileged, benefited, impaired or deprived of any rights whatsoever, or be exempt of any duties based on their ancestry, age, sex, sexual preference, marital status, family and economic conditions, instruction, origin or social conditions, genetic heritage, reduced work capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, origin territory, language, religion, political or ideological convictions and union membership.

27- Pursuant to Decree-Law no. 29/2001 of 3 February, disabled candidates shall be preferred in a situation of equal classification, and this preference supersedes any other legal preference. Candidates must declare, on their honour, their respective disability degree, type of disability and communication/expression means to be used during the selection period on their application form, under the terms of the regulations.
