Job description:

It is hereby made public that for 30 working days counted from the first working day following the publication of this Edital in Diário da República, an international position is open for the recruitment of one Assistant Professor, in the disciplinary area of Veterinary Medicine-Pre-Clinical Sciences and Veterinary Medicine - Public Health and Food Hygiene at the School of Sciences and Technology of the University of Évora, to be integrated into the staff map of this University. This position will be announced in the Bolsa de Emprego Público, in the web pages of the Fundação para a Ciência e Tecnologia, I.P., and of UE, in Portuguese and English, as established in articles 62.º-A of the Estatuto da Carreira Docente Universitária (ECDU), republished as attachment to the Decreto-Lei n.º 205/2009, of August 31, altered by the Lei nº 8/2010, of May 13. The present call follows the rulings of articles 37.º to 51º, 61º and 62º-A of the ECDU and further applicable laws and regulations, particularly the Regulamento dos Concursos para Recrutamento de Professores das Carreiras Docentes na Universidade de Évora, henceforth called Regulamento, approved by the Despacho n.º 2433/2019, published in the 2nd Series of Diário da República, nº 49, of March 11. As established in item h) of article 9.º of the Portuguese Constitution, Public Administration, when acting as an employer, actively promotes a policy of equal opportunity between men and women in access to employment and in professional progression, scrupulously endeavouring to avoid any form of discrimination. The interested parties are informed that this procedure is covered by Decreto-Lei nº 57/2016, of August 29 in the wording given by Lei no. 57/2017, of July 19, as part of the Program to Encourage Scientific Employment financed by the FCT, after approval in the Contest Stimulus to Scientific - Institutional Employment. In accordance with articles 37º to 51º of the ECDU and other applicable legislation and with article 8º of the Regulamento, the following provisions will apply: I - Authorization order - the present open position was authorized by order of the Rector of the University of Évora, in May 17th 2019. II - Place of work: School of Sciences and Technology of the University of Évora. III - Admission requirements: III.1. Chapter IV of the Regulamento is applied in regard to verification and compliance of the requirements of admission and exclusion of the candidates. III.2. Candidates must hold a PhD degree in Veterinary Sciences at the deadline for application, as well as fluency in portuguese language, both spoken and written. III.3. The holders of a doctoral degree obtained abroad must have equivalence/recognition/registration of that degree to an identical degree granted by a Portuguese University. The candidates covered by this item, that do not fulfil this requirement shall be admitted conditionally by the Secretary of this call. The equivalence/recognition/registration of that degree in Portugal is effected after the end of the tender under the terms defined in Decreto-Lei nº 66/2018, of August 16th. That equivalence/recognition/registration is a necessary step for contracting. III.4. Foreign candidates, except those of an official portuguese expression, are required to provide an officially recognized statement, demonstrating that they master Portuguese language, in both written and spoken forms. IV - Admission requirements in absolute merit: IV.1. Article 12º of the Regulamento is applied with regard to admission in absolute merit of candidates. IV.2. The jury will deliberate on their approval or rejection in absolute merit, through justified nominal voting, where abstentions are not allowed, considering approved in absolute merit the nominee who receives the affirmative vote of more than half of the voting jury members.

IV.3. The approval in absolute merit is considered on the overall curriculum, that the jury considers to have scientific merit, research capacity and value of the pedagogical activity already developed, compatible with the area or disciplinary areas to which the contest respects, and appropriate to the respective category. IV.4. Are special and preferential admission requirements to have research and teaching performance compatible with the subject area and position for which the present call is being opened, as well as relevant work in the areas of Epidemiology and Public Health, giving particular importance to the participation and work experience within the concept of One Health, Risk Analysis and Statistical Analysis and Surveillance Networks. V - Valuation parameters and ranking in relative merit, respective weighting and final valuation system: V.1. The method of selection is curricular evaluation. This curricular evaluation, takes into account the general functions committed to the teachers by article 4 of the ECDU and focuses on the following aspects: a) Scientific performance of the candidate; b) Pedagogic performance of the candidate; c) Other relevant activities. V.2. In the application of the criteria defined in number V.1., the following parameters and weights will be used: a) Scientific performance, with weight of 50%, which comprises: a1) Academic education; a2) Scientific output and its relevance in the domain; a3) Scientific coordination; a4) Recognition by the scientific community. b) Pedagogic performance, with weight of 30%, which comprises: b1) Teaching experience; b2) Student supervision; b3) Publication of textbooks with ISBN and of other pedagogical texts; b4) Pedagogical innovation. c) The performance in other relevant activities, with weight of 20%, which comprises: c1) University management; c2) University extension and other relevant activities (scientific dissemination, publications for scientific dissemination, training activities, specialized services to the community, and knowledge transfer.). V.3. The jury proceeds with the evaluation of the candidates approved in absolute merit, following the procedure laid down in article 22º of the Regulamento. VI. The ranking of the candidates will be the result of the weight average of quantitative scores obtained in each of the evaluation parameters, within a range of 0 to 100 points. VII – Public hearings: VII.1. The jury will deliberate at the first meeting on the need to hold public hearings of all candidates approved in absolute merit and are intended, in an exclusive way, to clarify what appears in the curriculum vitae submitted by the candidates, under the terms of b), nº 4 of article 50º of ECDU, with all candidates being informed, at least five working days in advance, of the date and place where such hearings will take place. VII.2. Public hearings referred to in the previous paragraph may be held by videoconference, but the jury must to ensure that these are carried out on equal terms for all candidates. VII.3. According to paragraph a), nº 4 of article 50º of ECDU the jury may also to request candidates to provide additional documentation related to the submitted curriculum. VIII - Application submission: VIII.1. Applications must be sent within 30 working days from the day immediately following the publication of this Edital in Diário da República. VIII.2.
