d.5. Contain a brief summary of the most recent bibliographic references as well as a summary conclusion of the expected results.

7.5 The assessment mentioned in the previous number can be complemented by interviewing to all candidates whenever the Jury of the respective competition so decides. The interview, which is not a selection method and is not classified, aims to obtain explanations or to clarify elements contained in the candidates' CVs.

7.6 The ranking of candidates results from the weighted average of the quantitative classifications obtained in each of the evaluation parameters on a scale of 0 to 100 points.

8 - Ordering and voting methodology:

8.1. The ordering of the applicants shall be grounded on the assessment based on the criteria and evaluation parameters and the corresponding weighting factors identified in this notice.

8.2. The Jury must only deliberate when at least one-third of its members are present and when the majority of the present are external members.

8.3. Before starting the voting, each member of the Jury shall submit a written document, which will be attached to the minutes, with the ordering of the applicants, duly informed, considering for this purpose, what was referred to in the previous number.

8.4. In the several votings, each member of the Jury shall respect the ordering he/she presented, and abstention shall not be allowed.

8.5. In the ordering of the applicants, each member of the Jury shall identify the applicants in descending order of the punctuations obtained.

8.6. Through the signed and the ordered list of applicants, each member of the Jury participates in the voting for the first place, for the second place, and so on, until the final ordering of all applicants admitted by absolute merit.

8.7. In the process of ordering the applicants, all deliberations by the Jury shall be taken by the absolute majority.

8.8. If the absolute majority for any of the applicants is not achieved in any of the votings, the voting will be repeated successively, with the exclusion of the less voted applicant, until an absolute majority of any of the applicants is achieved. In the event of a tie in the less voted place, the Jury will proceed with tiebreaker votings so as to decide which applicant shall be excluded.

9 - Participation of stakeholders and the decision:

9.1. Applicants are informed of the final text of the ordering for the purpose of holding a public hearing of the interested parties, in accordance with Article 121^o of the Administrative Procedure Code.

9.2. Once the public hearing of the interested parties is held, the Jury appreciates the claims proposed, in case of any, and approves the final ordering list of the applicants. In the absence of claims by the applicants, the final text of the order is considered automatically approved.
